Discussion/Application

1. Nebuchadnezzar did not always make wise decisions. When he had his first dream, he ordered the wise men to be put to death for not telling him his dream. When the three Hebrew men refused to bow before the golden image, Nebuchadnezzar had them thrown into the fiery furnace. In these two situations, what was the same?
2. How could Nebuchadnezzar have avoided making wrong decisions?
3. Nebuchadnezzar had a problem controlling his temper. Can you think of someone in the life of David that had trouble controlling his anger?
4. How were Saul and Nebuchadnezzar alike?
5. Daniel and his friends did not react to the king's commandments in anger even though they were being treated unfairly. Why do you think they reacted differently?
6. Daniel and his friends honored God with their commitment to do right. What actions can you take now that will help you honor God throughout your life?
7. What was your favorite part from the life of Daniel and what did you learn from it?

Something to Think About

- The way we react to both blessings and challenges shows our commitment to doing what is right. Consider how you would react to these situations.
 - your brother or sister played with your toys and broke one
 - you make a winning play in a game, play well in a concert, or make the highest grade on a test
 - someone skips ahead of you when it's your turn
 - Mom or Dad tells you to do something when you are enjoying something else
 - you are tempted to lie to get out of trouble
- What can you do now to help you later? The Bible tells us, “Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee.” (Psalm 119:11) As you read your Bible, you might want to have a notebook in which you can copy verses that you want to remember. Look up the following verses and write the reference under the sin each verse can help you resist. Can you think of other sins that you are tempted to commit and verses to help you?

Colossians 3:20	Ephesians 4:26	Proverbs 29:23	Psalm 37:8
Matthew 6:14–15	Joshua 24:24	Romans 12:17	Ephesians 4:32
Proverbs 15:1	Proverbs 12:17	1 Corinthians 13:4a	James 4:6
