3. God supplied the widow's needs through Elijah, and God supplied Elijah's needs through the widow. What promise does Philippians 4:19 give to us today?

4. Elijah saw God answer prayer. Was that because God saw something extra special in Elijah? The Bible tells us in James 5:17–18 that Elijah was just an ordinary man who prayed. Can you think of another person in the Bible that prayed and God answered his prayer either for protection or supplying his needs?

5. Have you or someone you know had an answer to prayer recently? How did God answer this prayer?

6. After the challenge against the prophets of Baal, Elijah ran because he was discouraged and afraid. What did God do to encourage him?

7. How does God speak to us today?

Discussion / Application

1. The widow of Zarephath seemed to know about Elijah's God. What does it mean to know about God?
2. What does it mean to know God?
3. What caused the widow of Zarephath to change from knowing about God to knowing God?
4. It took courage for Elijah to stand for God. Often he stood alone. Would you have the courage to do what is right when those around you are not? What would you do in the following situation? Your friends are together and begin talking about someone in an unkind way. How could you politely change the conversation to a conversation that would honor God?
5. Would it be easy to stand up for someone else if people laughed at you? This Bible verse may help you. Find Joshua 1:9 and fill in the blanks. "Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good _____: be not _____, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest."
6. What was your favorite part from the life of Elijah and what did you learn from it?
