Discussion/Application

1. Why was Jonathan a good friend for David?

2. Do you think that you could be a good friend? How could you be a good friend now?

3. Are you a good friend to your brother or sister? Is there something you could change to be a better brother or sister?

4. Read 1 Samuel 16:7. Think about yourself. Is there something about your outward appearance you would like to change? Maybe you would like to be a little taller so you could be a better basketball player. Maybe you would like straight hair and not curly, or you would like curls instead of straight hair. The next time you think, “I wish I could change [fill in the blank],” stop and instead think, “Thank you, God, for making me [fill in the blank].” Remember that God looks on your character not how you look.

5. Is there someone you know that could use some encouragement because he doesn’t look, act, or dress like others do? What could you say or do that would encourage him?

6. What was your favorite part from the life of David, and what did you learn from it?
Something to Think About

1. Look up the following verses that were written by David. As you read, see if you find any of the following: Does he describe God? Does he praise God? Does he mention a promise from God? Does he pray for something? Put a star by your favorite verse.

   Psalm 34:1    Psalm 37:4    Psalm 37:23–24    Psalm 55:17

2. David was a shepherd and took care of his father’s sheep. In what Psalm does David call God a Shepherd? ________ If you have trusted in Jesus, you and David have the same Shepherd. Read this Psalm thinking about all the ways God shows His love to you.
