Preparing to Teach

You have taught the children in your class to pray, but are you regularly praying for them? You can pray that God will raise up many young Christians from your class who will victoriously live for God. Keep a calendar listing each child's birthday. In private, pray diligently for each child whose birthday falls that month. During class time, recognize each child who had a birthday in the past week and pray for them aloud. As you pray for the children, they will feel like they are important to you and to God.

- Scripture to read
1 Samuel 17
- Lesson theme
Victory over sin
- Lesson application
God can give victory when you are tempted to do wrong or help you to accomplish a difficult task.
- Class memory verse

Teaching Tips

Offering can be taken several ways. You can have a place where students put money when they come in. Or you can “train” children to be ushers and take up a collection.

Call on 2 children to pray who have not prayed publicly. (Ask before class.) Tell them one or two things to thank God for. If they hesitate while praying, assist them. Then you pray a brief prayer. Do this each week until all the children have publicly prayed.

Enthusiastically teach new songs. Encourage children to think about the words as they sing.

If using Bible Treasures Bible Lesson DVD, show part A here and part B during second story time.

Have children say together Exodus 20:12. Optional: Hand out Mini Bible Memory Verse Cards for Psa. 23:1 at end of class.

Help children to see that God will help them with problems when they ask Him.

Teaching Tips

Read these quick tips for great organizational helps, thoughts to ponder, or reminders to keep your class going smoothly.

TEACHER GUIDES

Give your Bible study teachers helpful resources to easily lead their class. With teacher guides, they'll have a strong foundation to confidently build their lessons on.

Take a look at these sample pages!

were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

When Jesus was on earth, He felt affection for people. These verses say He was "moved with compassion." Jesus had strong emotion and sympathy for them. This was the heart of Jesus' ministry.

Jesus had compassion for them because they were like sheep without a shepherd. This means they were bullied around by those in authority over them. Have you ever known a bully at school? This is how people felt around those who were in authority over them. They were uncaring and harsh.

Jesus also had compassion on the people because they were "scattered abroad as sheep having no shepherd." means they were helpless.

Those in charge of the people were supposed to help them, but they did not. The people were like sheep with no one to guide them. This was a situation that moved Jesus' heart.

Jesus wanted His followers to feel His compassion for people. To help them, He used an example of something familiar: farming.

Jesus spoke of a field whose crops needed to be harvested. If the crops were not gathered, they would be ruined. But there was a problem. There were not enough workers to gather the crops.

Jesus was saying that the people were like crops that would die and come to ruin if there were not enough workers to help them. The Lord told His disciples to have such concern for these people that they would send more laborers.
